Hi Nathaniel and Victor,
In the meeting, all of the agencies made clear that they did not want homeless people living around the area to be rounded up and arrested. Far from that, I think the agencies are looking for a way to co-exist while the City builds more shelter and housing for people. What I think would benefit unhoused people and employees there is more cleanings on a regular basis. GSD passed out a "heat map" of rodent hot spots and there are MANY hot spots. Once they figure out when they are cleaning (days of week and times), I will also reach out again to make sure you all know this and hopefully we can also inform the SPA lead so that they can also message this to the people living there so no one is surprised about the cleanings. I wish the City had more funds for additional bathrooms and attendants but I know those are in high demand elsewhere in the City as well.
We are hoping that once there is a cleaning schedule, people are aware and you all provide feedback on the cleaning schedule, we can hopefully get voluntary compliance so the cleaning can occur. I am sure we will talk about this at our UHRC meeting but I wanted to make sure you didn't think anyone was planning a "sweep" etc.
Thanks,
Gita

Hi Pepe,

Beginning in the next week or two, we'd like to start weekly posted CSLA cleanups in the Civic Center / City Hall East. The trash, human waste, and rodent problem have grown quite problematic, not to mention increasing security concerns for City employees in and around the parking garage and areas of CHE. (GSD and LAPD are working together on lighting and security issues).

Please touch base with Valerie Melloff, Asst. General Manager of GSD, who is copied here, ASAP to coordinate logistics, including day of the week, timing, or any other questions or concerns.

Appreciate you keeping me and our office in the loop, as well, as you work to finalize plans.

Nathaniel and Victor, this has obvious implications for you and your outreach workers and people experiencing homelessness in and around the Civic Center. It might be too early to start messaging to clients about the impending weekly cleanups, but maybe not. I leave that decision to you. We should make sure The People Concern is kept in the loop.

Let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks so much.

Brian
